

You MUST defend BOTH sides of the argument!

1. Boys should not be allowed to have facial hair at school.

Boys should be allowed to have facial hair at school.

2. We should have a dress code at school.

We should not have a dress code at school.

3. We should be allowed to use our phones at any moment in the classroom (receive/send texts, take phone calls, etc.)

We should not be allowed to use our phones in school.

4. We should be allowed to eat anything we want at any time of the school day.

We should restrict eating to the cafeteria only during the school day.

5. We should get to choose the classes we take (only choose classes that help our future professions).

We should have predetermined courses, and 4 core classes.

6. We should get off campus lunch.

We should have to stay on campus for lunch.

7. We shouldn't have homework.

We should have homework.

8. Students should not be punished for turning in assignments passed due dates.

Students shouldn't be allowed to turn assignments in passed due dates.

9. We should take the standardized tests.

We should not take the standardized tests.

10. Schools should use the "No pass, no play" rule.

Participation should not depend on your grades.